

Statement on behalf of Eddie Gilfoyle –
Response to the CCRC decision not to refer the case to the Court of Appeal

This is far from the end of Eddie Gilfoyle's fight to clear his name. There will never be an end when someone like Eddie is wrongly convicted. Eddie Gilfoyle has had to fight systems failure within the legal system, his case has now become a sad example of systems failure of the CCRC. Eddie Gilfoyle will want to make an informed decision and is faced with the potential of taking on the CCRC in addition to every organ of the legal system to get justice. It's regrettable but it maybe in the wider interest of others for him to do so.
